(11) Distribution of Classes:

- A. The classes earmarked with asterisk (*) are assigned for assessing learning outcomes as per amendment of RTE ACT, 2009. The child's development of learning outcomes is to be conducted through formative assessment as well as summative assessment in classes I-VIII and through internal formative evaluation(IFE) in classes IX and X as per the directives of WBBME.
- B. The Madrasah authorities are directed to make necessary provisions for arranging library class, smart class/ class through K-Yan/audio-Visual learning, Computer literacy or Laboratory based learning, awareness drives ( Kanyashree, Road safety, Child rights, Disaster management, Snake bites, Child marriage, Child trafficking etc.) regarding curricular subjects as far as practicable.
- C. The Madrasah authorities are directed to make necessary provisions for few classes for IX and X as regards the activities given alongside, information and communication technology (ICT), audio-visual learning, reference work, lab-activities/lab-based learning, Mock tests, Career counseling, Basic legal awareness/Health awareness/Skill enhancement workshops, inclusive education, financial literacy etc., as applicable. The library may be used on and often for smooth execution of IFE in classes IX and X as well as for remedial classes.
- D. Maintaining teacher's diary is essential for ensuring formative assessment as well as summative assessment through framing of tasks, learning evidence, class record book, child portfolio on a day-to -day (for classes I-VIII) for each teacher.

- E. Every Madrasah is required to furnish a blue print of their routine/daily time table pertaining to the mandatory structure of time periods/class distribution as earmarked by WBBME.
- F. The Madrasahs will prepare a report and send to WBBME through e-mail (wbbmeaca@gmail.com) just after completion of 3 consecutive summative evaluations with proper evidences, highlighting the extent to which a child's learning outcome has been achieved through preparation of child profiles. A copy of the same is also to be sent to D.I.S(SE)/A.D.I.S (SE)/A.I.S(SE) of concerned districts and sub divisions, as applicable.
- G. In cases of classes I-VIII, the Madrasahs may afford time during effective instructional hour or may use some classes for the following activities (from classes other than subject-based learning) to develop and strengthen their learning abilities within and outside the classroom. The class teacher will incorporate and tag pertinent activities within her/his lesson design to be executed during the instructional hour throughout the academic year. Some of the activities that are exclusively co-curricular in nature (e.g. web designing, awareness drive etc.) may demand allotment of separate classes, independent of lesson design but within the stipulated instructional hours.
